CALDWELL BRASS LANTERN WITH TEXTURED GLASS CYLINDER

VINTAGE COLLECTION

Circa 1920

An antique brass lantern with clear bent glass panels forming a cylinder. The subtle water textured glass creates a shimmering diffused glow, emitting from a central cluster with four lights. The cast brass frame having Greek-key scrolls retains its original blackened finish, while the turned finials, loops, and chain are a warmer age darkened brass. Attributed to the New York maker E. F. Caldwell. Due to the antique nature of this fixture, there may be some nicks or imperfections in the glass.
