GOLD LEAF AND ENAMELED CRYSTAL DRESSED CHANDELIER

VINTAGE COLLECTION

Circa 1950

An eight-light antique chandelier from a northern New Jersey estate built in the 1950s. The frame is a combination of wrought iron and brass in a glazed green painted finish, highlighted with gold-leafed foliate elements. The metalwork is dressed with cut crystal pendulogues, beads, and spears. The large bobèches are pierced and inset with small crystals. The piece is lit with an uplight in the center cup as well as eight candelabra uplights on the arms. Due to the antique nature of this fixture, there may be some nicks or imperfections in the glass.
