MINERVA TABLE LAMP

ROBERT A. M. STERN ARCHITECTS COLLECTION

A modern table lamp having a slender round stem connecting to a round ball base with four curved square-sectioned legs. The frosted glass drum shade floats below a minimal circular top frame, obscuring a two light cluster. A decorative cylinder form toggle switch mirrors the cylindrical shade of the lamp and sits around 8" from the leg. Part of a collection of minimal light fixtures designed by Robert A.M. Stern Architects for Remains Lighting.
